TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

In ancient pagan Rome, these days in mid-December were a time for general slacking off at work and far too much rejoicing. The period of leisure after the harvest and a whole cluster of pagan festivals were a force for the church to reckon with. The Saturnalia, breaking out on December 17, was a time of high living and loose morals. Christians were advised by their bishops to drop out of the mayhem and do some serious fasting. A famous church council at Saragossa in Spain made a season of fasting mandatory from December 17 to December 23, exactly coinciding with the Saturnalia. The bishops at that time were perhaps less concerned with preparing for Christmas than with resisting the kind of loose living going on.

Modern times have restored a bit of the Saturnalia spirit to our culture, so that a general period of partying with a vague connection to religion is now upon us. How does a Christian keep balance? The practice of charity by remembering the poor in our gift-giving, of hospitality in finding a place at our holiday tables for the poor and lonely, and of daily prayer in the home and at church are great helps. Although Advent is not a penitential season like Lent, it is a time for making room in our lives for what matters most.—James Field, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

Homebound— Do you know someone who can no longer attend Church due to a disability or illness? Were they Churchgoers? Would they like to receive the Eucharist? There is an opportunity for them to receive through the Church's Homebound ministry. If you know of someone elderly, disabled or too sick to attend Mass and receive communion this is their opportunity. Call the Family Life Center and ask to speak to Mrs. J. Lamke. She will arrange for someone to visit the home of the individual and bring them Holy Communion.

Thrift Center: Cleaning closets? Need to declutter but don't know what to do with that "stuff"? Please consider donating to the Thrift Center which is maintained in the home of Mrs. Gussie Fontenot on Magnolia St. (next to Aucoin Law Office). Drop off clothes and/or household items on Magnolia St.

A Back-to-Basics Lecture

Seeking the Face of God in Prayer

Disalced Carmelite Seculars are members of the Carmelite family of the 16th century reform of St. Teresa of Jesus. Seculars are practicing members of the Catholic Church who are over the age of 18. They come from all walks of life: men and women, married or unmarried, or ordained diocesan priests or deacons.

The Secular Carmelites main charism is prayer. They make the commitment to the Disalced Carmelite Order to seek the face of God for the sake of the Church, the world and their families.

If you would like more information on the Secular Order of the Disalced Carmelites, please see the brochure on the literature rack or call:

Karen Perron 336-1775 or Roberta McCurry 363-6994.
